PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Lifecycle Marketing Manager Jan 2025 – Jul 2026

NorthSky Supply, U.S. business unit of ZKH Group (NYSE: ZKH) The Woodlands, TX

- Built the marketing, CRM and revenue-operations function for a new U.S. industrial-supply business that started with no team, no playbook and no CRM; the business grew from launch to ~$2.5M in monthly revenue in under 18 months.
- Built lifecycle and repeat-purchase campaigns in HubSpot, modeled with the product team on each customer's replenishment cycle and timed to the reorder window; those campaigns converted at 10–12%.
- Owned the customer funnel end to end in HubSpot: segmentation, email campaigns, scoring, nurture and the handoff to sales and service reps.
- Built the live dashboards across paid, social, web and CRM that marketing, sales, service and executive leadership reviewed weekly; paid-media ROAS rose from under 0.5 at launch to over 5.0.
- Named by ZKH's VP of IT and AI to lead a four-person AI team in China; built the HubSpot property mappings that delivered AI-generated product and service content to sales and service reps.
- Directed outside creative agencies and vendors with no in-house creative team and led a team of UX, UI and data specialists.

Digital Marketing Manager Dec 2023 – Nov 2024

Raise3D Technologies Houston, TX

- Owned North American trade-show and event strategy and ran a monthly content program of articles, white papers, case studies, webinars and video for engineering buyers.
- Took three global product launches from headquarters in China into North America (Pro3 HS Series, RMF500, DF2): positioning, HubSpot launch campaigns, release communications, website copy and trade-show introductions.
- Built the demand engine on Salesforce, HubSpot, ZoomInfo and Drift; online conversions rose 30% through integrated campaigns and landing-page optimization, and qualified pipeline to sales rose 40%.
- Appointed to the executive management committee; presented strategy and results to senior leadership and trained teams across the company on go-to-market and business development.

Marketing Consultant Apr 2020 – Dec 2023

Tangible Communications Houston, TX

- Designed and ran compliance-reviewed client-acquisition campaigns for a 25-advisor wealth-management firm, bringing in new client relationships in a regulated category.

- Built the HubSpot CRM, marketing automation and sales pipeline for a fiber-optic installation contractor from scratch; the system produced $26M in qualified project pipeline.
- Ran demand generation, martech and go-to-market strategy across oil and gas, engineering, contracting and financial services.

Marketing & Communications Manager Nov 2016 – Apr 2020
Integrated Global Services (IGS) Houston, TX

- Wrote the company's technical papers with the R&D team, directed the video explaining high-velocity thermal spray and introduced 3D animation and interactive presentations for business development.
- Created the marketing function at a ~$90M global oil, gas and power-generation services company that had never had one (thermal-spray coatings and asset-life services for refineries, boilers and power plants); reported to the SVP of Sales and enabled a 12-person global sales team.
- Generated $6.8M in new revenue and $31M in qualified pipeline over two years through Pardot programs on Salesforce; marketing ROI exceeded 110% and qualified leads to sales rose 50%.
- Managed trade shows and conferences across the U.S., Europe and the Middle East and supported business development teams in the Czech Republic, South Africa and Asia.
